Ordering from the menu and carvery selection?

Carvery and menu meals are prepared and served separately and may have different wait times. If your party decides to order a mixture of both, meals may not arrive at the same time so please take this into consideration when placing your order. Please feel free to ask our staff about wait times to help you time your orders.

Summer is one of our busiest times and all of our food is cooked freshly to order. As a result there may be a wait during peak or busy periods.

Thank you for your patience and understanding while we ensure every meal is served to the quality you deserve.
